

Year 5 have been busy with science investigations this term. Their scientific skills are progressing well and they are becoming more independent with planning their own enquiries and research questions.